Description;

This project took its place among the home and mixed life projects on the European Side of Istanbul. The project, implemented by a reliable construction company, amazes those who see it with its 27-storey architecture. The opportunity for a life full of privileges awaits you in the project, where minimal life is combined with a privileged location. The project, which has been implemented on a very large land area, includes both residences and commercial units.

The project, located on Basın Ekspres, which has become the intersection point of business and education centers, enables investors to be located in the most advantageous location of Istanbul. You will have comfortable living spaces with the project, which responds to basic needs and requirements and can change in parallel with the changing technology and the requirements of the age.

The project is a mixed life project, one of the most used axes of Istanbul; It rises right next to Basın Ekspres Road in Bağcılar Mahmutbey region. Basin Ekspres, one of the living and investment centers on the European Side of Istanbul, which has a rapidly rising investment value in recent years, is hosting the project.

Built on a land area of 10,000 square meters in total, the project amazes those who see it with its 27-storey architecture. You will have more comfortable living spaces in the project, which will meet your needs in every period with its design that keeps up with the era and technology. At the same time, every day will be full of pleasure in the project, which also offers a 360-degree panoramic view of Istanbul.

An advantageous investment opportunity awaits you in Istanbul with the Basın Ekspres project, which stands out with its single block design, fully equipped and spacious living spaces. The project, which draws attention with its high investment and return value both today and in the future, will be mentioned frequently among Istanbul housing projects.
